

Mrs. Isabelle Gray.

Isabelle Pratt was born in Dixon, Ill., February 27, 1846, and died July 29, 1917, at the home of her daughter in Kremlin, Okla., at the age of seventy-one years, five months and two days. When but a small child her parents moved to Wisconsin and from there to Nebraska in 1860. On March 13, 1867, she was united in marriage to Robert Gray. To this union were born eight children, seven of whom are still living, a son having died in infancy. Those surviving are Mrs. Abbie H. Hunnicutt, Giltner; Eva F. Holman of Willard, Okla.; Anna Ward of Enid, Okla.; Robert L. Gray of Kremlin, Okla.; Isabelle E. Campbell of Harvard, Neb.; J. R. Gray of Pittsville, Cal., and Florence A. Moffat of Kremlin, Okla. All were present at the funeral except the youngest son. She leaves, beside the children, twenty-nine grandchildren, four great grandchildren, five brothers and one sister, and a host of friends. She has been a christian for thirty years, uniting first with the Salem Baptist church and later with the Christian church of Giltner. The remains were brought to Harvard where funeral services were held, and was laid to rest beside her husband in Harvard cemetery.
